DETAILED ACTION

Drawings

1. Figure 11 should be designated by a legend such as --Prior Art-- because only that which is old is illustrated. See MPEP § 608.02(g). Corrected drawings in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. The replacement sheet(s) should be labeled "Replacement Sheet" in the page header (as per 37 CFR 1.84(c)) so as not to obstruct any portion of the drawing figures. If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Objections

2. The claims are objected to because reference characters corresponding to elements recited in the detailed description of the drawings and used in conjunction with the recitation of the same element or group of elements in the claims should be deleted so as to avoid confusion with other numbers or characters which may appear in the claims.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

Art Unit: 3726

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

4. Claims 1, 2 and 4-11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Leifeld (DE 40 18 311).

With regards to claim 1, Leifeld discloses a needle blade roll comprising a roll main body 20 and a large number of needle blades 4a implanted into a peripheral surface of the roll main body and wherein each blade is arranged at a sloping angle relative to an associated radial line of the main body so that its leading end lies ahead of the radial line with respect to the rotational direction of the roll main body, see figures 1-3a. Regarding the recitation of the intended use of the needle blade roll in the preamble of the claim, Applicant should note that a recitation of the intended use of the claimed invention must result in a structural difference between the claimed invention and the prior art in order to patentably distinguish the claimed invention from the prior art. If the prior art structure is capable of performing the intended use, then it meets the claim.

For claim 2, see angle α in figure 3a.

For claim 4, see abstract wherein the claimed clearance is between 0.5 and 5mm.

For claims 5-11, Applicant should note the different types of artificial cotton lend no patentable weight to the needle blade roll being claimed. Furthermore such different types of artificial cotton are old and well known in the art.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

5. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

6. Claim 3 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Leifeld in view of Bobkowicz et al. (US Patent 3,924,396).

Leifeld discloses a needle blade roll as shown above. Although Leifeld does not explicitly disclose the needle blades being arranged in helical fashion on the peripheral surface of the roll main body, however it is known to arrange needle blades on the peripheral surface of a roll main body in helical fashion in order to continuously convey the fibers as attested by Bobkowicz et al., see column 5, lines 3-38. Therefore it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made, to have arranged the needle blades of Leifeld in helical fashion on the peripheral surface of the roll main body, in light of the teachings of Bobkowicz, in order to continuously convey the fibers.

Conclusion

7. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
